2007 Awards for NJAWBO Essex Members

2007 NJAWBO Essex Teal Heart Award Recipients

Julie Serritella (center left), a Financial Services Professional with New York Life, and Donna R. Thompson (center right), president and owner of drtEnterprises, LLC, of Cedar Grove, have been chosen by the Essex Chapter of the NJ Association of Women Business Owners (NJAWBO) as the 2007 Teal Heart Award recipients. The Teal Heart Award is a NJAWBO service award that is designed to acknowledge members for outstanding service and dedication to the State association and to its chapters, and to inspire members to take initiative in projects that will further NJAWBO's goals and objectives. With the recipients are NJAWBO Essex president elect Holly Kaplansky (left), owner of Minuteman Press of Newark, and NJAWBO Essex president Rosanna Imbriano (right), owner of RI Consulting of Cedar Grove.

Hispanic American Chamber of Commerce of Essex County Honors NJAWBO Essex Chapter with its Public Service Award and LisaMarie Dias as “Businesswoman of the Year”
